PRESS RELEASE
(for Immediate Release)

Turning Tragedy into Triumph, this Powerful Motivational Speaker Transforms Lives

Lyn-Dee Eldridge (Woobie) is a powerful motivational speaker, coach and author, whose Woobie Workshops create a life transformational intensity that lifts you out of your seat and out of your rut.

With her bold message, Lyn-Dee Eldridge moves audiences to tears, laughter, and courageous steps forward in personal growth and meaningful transformation. Whether the topic is growing your business, personal development or stories of survival in today's challenging world, Lyn-Dee inspires all who hear her to become more than they ever dreamed they could be.

As long as her own life carried the locked doors of a painful childhood and later an abusive husband, Lyn-Dee Eldridge was stuck, her talents and strengths bottled up behind closed doors. But Lyn-Dee isn't the type of woman to tolerate having her own life, or her daughter's life, shut out from the happiness she knew they were entitled to enjoy. Turning trauma into triumph, Lyn-Dee Eldridge has become a highly sought motivational speaker, life coach, successful businesswoman, published author, and most importantly, happy and fulfilled wife, mother, and grandmother who now lives in peace with her painful past. The doors of her life are wide open both when she speaks and in her new book, Tears of Fears Behind Closed Doors. When Lyn-Dee Eldridge shares her powerful and poignant message with audiences, they never see their own lives in the same way again.

Jason Tremblay, CEO and co-founder of SellMyTimeshareNOW.com, says, "Lyn-Dee is one of the most dynamic and inspiring speakers available today. She frequently speaks to our staff of 160 employees and always manages to virtually lift people right out of their seats. I've seen very few people with such an uncanny ability to connect with any audience. If you're looking for a high energy speaker who can deliver a message that matters—your search is over."

Robin Morton, who describes herself as a mother and a survivor, says, "...Thank you Lyn-Dee for stripping yourself emotionally naked and allowing us/me to see your heart. It gave me the courage to remember to never quit!"

Communicating with her audience, not talking 'at' them, Lyn-Dee Eldridge helps battered women find healing, businesspeople rise to the top in their fields, and organizations reach new levels of communication. It's simple: everyone who attends a Lyn-Dee Eldridge (Woobie) Workshop or conference walks away 'taller.'

Since 2001, Lyn-Dee Eldridge has been a nationwide public speaker and coach, trained in personal development, MLM business building, team building, and life. She's inspired, motivated, uplifted, and transformed the lives of others speaking at conventions, seminars, and Woobie Workshops nationwide.
